1. In your own words, how would you define “submission” (subjection)?
2. How are Christian submission and submission as the world understands it different? How are they alike?
3. Do you agree that The question is not, “Are you being submissive; but rather, to what or to whom are you being submissive?” Why or why not?
4. What are the possible sources to which we will find ourselves submissive? Which of these has most captured you? Why is it important to consider this question?
5. What are some ways in which you could seek to live your life “who was properly a complete Christian, in all respects of a right stamp”?
